

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY EXAM – IMPORTANT INFORMATION

In accordance with the Law on the Protection of Personal Data (KVKK), personal information must not be disclosed in publicly accessible environments. Therefore, you can access your exam results from the attached list by using the last four digits of your student ID number.

- Only students who scored 60 or above in the Placement Test held on 09.09.2026, as well as students registered in 2025 or earlier who have not successfully completed the English Preparatory Program, regardless of their level, will be eligible to take the English Proficiency Exam on 11.09.2026.
- The classroom list for the English Proficiency Exam is attached to this announcement.
- The English Proficiency Exam on 11.09.2026 will be administered in two sessions: the written session from 09:30 to 12:30 and the Speaking session from 13:30 to 16:30.
- Students are required to attend both sessions. The morning session will assess vocabulary, reading, listening, and writing skills, while the afternoon session will assess speaking skills.
- Students must be present at the campus and classroom specified in the attached list no later than 09:00, with a pen, eraser, and a valid photo ID and/or student ID card. Students who arrive late will not be admitted to the exam, and there will be no make-up exam.
- The lists indicating the classrooms where the Speaking Exam will be held will be posted on the doors of the relevant classrooms on the day of the exam.
- The results of the English Proficiency Exam held on 11.09.2026 will be announced on the Announcements section of the University's website homepage. Please follow the 2026–2027 Academic Calendar for the English Preparatory Program on the University's website for information regarding the start date of classes.
- The exam will be assessed out of 100 points. Students who achieve a score of 60 or above will be exempt from the English Preparatory Program and will be eligible to continue their education in their respective faculties.
